

On sufficient conditions of transience of the solution of stochastic differential equations with switching

Kirill Mosievich*

September 24, 2022

Sufficient conditions for the transience of the process have been established for the Markov diffusion model with switching and two modes, transient and ergodic, at intensities strictly separable from zero. This paper shows limitations on the conditions for exponential ergodicity with a given switching system.

*Moscow State University, Moscow, Russia kirillmosievich@gmail.com